[SS Eth] Anti-Discrimination in Mortgage Transactions

15 Minutes

Federal laws play an important role in addressing discriminatory practices in mortgage loan origination. The Equal Credit Opportunity Act and the Fair Housing Act establish personal characteristics that are protected by federal law and may not play a role in making a lending decision. This course will review these laws.

[SS Eth] Consumer Relationships

20 Minutes

The continued health and growth of the mortgage market depends greatly on the ethical conduct of those engaging in mortgage loan transactions. Honesty, awareness, and compliance with the law are key to ensuring that the mortgage business is conducted according to a sufficient ethical standard. With regulators making consumer protection in the mortgage market a renewed priority, it is important to understand how ethical principles can be applied in the practice of loan origination.

This course will explore concepts related to ethical behavior in loan origination. Topics addressed include company compliance, consumer complaints, homebuyer education, and more.

[SS Eth] Ethical Behavior of Consumers

10 Minutes

Though federal and state measures in place do a great deal to deter unscrupulous conduct on the part of mortgage professionals and consumers alike, there may be some individuals who feel compelled to take advantage of access to the financial marketplace.

This course will briefly discuss the impact of unethical behavior by consumers and how it may be detected.

[SS Eth] Ethical Conduct in the Appraisal Process

20 Minutes

The appraisal of real estate used as collateral for a mortgage loan is one of the most critical components of the entire transaction, as the loan amount is directly tied to the value of the property. Appraisals are also the component of mortgage lending transactions with which unethical actions are most commonly associated.

This course will review the importance of ethical conduct in the appraisal process.

[SS Eth] Ethical Issues Related to Federal Lending Laws I

20 Minutes

Ethical considerations are the basis for most federal lending laws. The importance of ethical lending practices cannot be understated.

This course will focus on an overview of the relationship between ethical business and federal mortgage laws, as well as a review of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act.

[SS Eth] Ethical Issues Related to Federal Lending Laws II

15 Minutes

Ethical considerations are the basis for most federal lending laws. The importance of ethical lending practices cannot be understated.

This course will focus on an overview of two federal laws that are important to ethical mortgage business: the Truth-in-Lending Act and the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act.

[SS Eth] Financial Responsibility

15 Minutes

The concept of financial responsibility as it relates to mortgage origination refers to both the individual loan originator's qualifications and his or her handling of loan transactions. Financial responsibility can also refer to the loan originator's compliance with regulations such as the ATR Rule and the Loan Originator Compensation Rule. Showing regard for the consumer's ability to afford a mortgage loan, and ensuring loan suitability, also demonstrate the loan originator's ability to make sound financial judgments.

This course will review the importance of financial responsibility as a mortgage professional.

[SS Eth] Fraud Detection Techniques

20 Minutes

Loan originators are in a strong position to detect the unethical behavior of borrowers, including attempts to complete fraudulent mortgage transactions. A mortgage professional can often detect and address issues of mortgage fraud with a thorough analysis of the loan file. There are many indicators a mortgage professional can use to become alert to the possibility of fraud.

This course will review a variety of indicators of fraud on everything from applications to income documentation and more.

[SS Eth] Fraud Detection, Reporting and Prevention

20 Minutes

Mortgage professionals are in a unique position when they engage in loan transactions with consumers. They have the opportunity to complete transactions for hundreds of thousands of dollars, and they have access to personal consumer information. Mortgage professionals in this position, however, may also be tempted to use this for nefarious means and engage in fraud. Conversely, these individuals are also able to detect attempts at fraud by consumers.

This course will review methods of how fraud may be attempted, detected, and penalized.

[SS Eth] Mortgage Fraud and Ethical Behavior

20 Minutes

Mortgage fraud costs lenders and consumers alike billions of dollars each year. These losses ultimately result in higher costs for potential homeowners and the need for tougher regulation and control over the industry to prevent further loss. Ethical principles are a vital part of avoiding fraud and ensuring that consumers are protected.

This course will review important information about mortgage fraud, as well as the importance of maintaining ethical principles in conducting loan origination activities.

[SS Eth] Unfair, Deceptive, or Abusive Acts or Practices

10 Minutes

When Congress adopted the Dodd-Frank Act in 2010, it adopted a provision that prohibits all providers of consumer financial products and services from engaging in unfair, deceptive, or abusive acts or practices (UDAAP).

This course will review provisions related to UDAAP, including how these practices are defined and how risks can be appropriately managed.

[SS Fed] Ability to Repay and Qualified Mortgage Rules

20 Minutes

The Ability to Repay (ATR) and Qualified Mortgage (QM) Rules became effective in January 2014. These rules were established to ensure that creditors are making reasonable, good faith efforts to ensure a borrower's repayment ability before making a mortgage loan. The Rules came about in response to the many "creative" loans that were difficult for borrowers to afford in the long-term and ultimately contributed to the mortgage market crash. By enacting these rules, the CFPB hopes to curb previous dangerous lending practices, and ensure a safer, more responsible lending market.

This course provides an overview of the Ability to Repay and Qualified Mortgage Rules, including provisions related to assessing borrower repayment ability and presumptions of compliance.

[SS Fed] Dodd-Frank Act

15 Minutes

Waves of defaults on subprime home loans and the rapid unraveling of the market began in March 2007, and the impact of these losses is still determining the economic forecast. Congress addressed the crisis with the enactment of new legislation, specifically the passage of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (the Dodd-Frank Act). The law addresses a broad range of issues that relate to financial and investment activities, including mortgage lending and investing.

This course provides an overview of the Dodd-Frank Act, including a look at some of the most pertinent titles and subtitles within the Act.

[SS Fed] Equal Credit Opportunity Act

30 Minutes

In 1974, Congress enacted the Equal Credit Opportunity Act (ECOA) to eliminate discriminatory treatment of credit applicants. The primary reason for the enactment of ECOA was anecdotal evidence that women were not treated on an equal basis with men when applying for credit. ECOA and its regulations, known as Regulation B, are intended to promote the availability of credit to all creditworthy applicants regardless of gender, race, color, religion, national origin, marital status, age, and regardless of the fact that the applicant receives income from a public assistance program or has exercised his or her rights under the Consumer Credit Protection Act.

This course provides an overview of ECOA, including important definitions, information related to required disclosures, and prohibited lending practices.

[SS Fed] E-Sign Act

10 Minutes

The Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (E-Sign Act) is a federal law enacted to address the validity of documents, records, and signatures that are in electronic form. The E-Sign Act applies to interstate and foreign commerce, and allows for the use of electronic records to satisfy any law, regulation, or rule that requires information to be provided in writing, as long as the consumer affirmatively consents to electronic delivery.

This course will explore the E-Sign Act and its provisions.

[SS Fed] Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act

20 Minutes

In 2003, Congress added provisions to the Fair Credit Reporting Act with the enactment of the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACTA). Congress adopted these additional provisions in order to address the problem of identity theft, to facilitate consumers' access to the information retained by consumer reporting agencies (CRAs), and to improve the accuracy of consumer reports. The Red Flags Rule, a measure included in FACTA, was adopted in 2010 to further address identity theft.

This course provides an overview of FACTA, including important definitions, required disclosures and notifications, and provisions related to the Red Flags Rule.

[SS Fed] Fair Credit Reporting Act

20 Minutes

The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) is a federal law that was enacted in 1970 as an amendment to the Consumer Credit Protection Act. Its purpose is to improve accuracy, impartiality, privacy, and fairness in credit reporting by imposing special requirements on consumer reporting agencies, companies that supply information to consumer reporting agencies, and companies that use consumers' personal information.

This course provides an overview of FCRA, including important definitions, required disclosures and notifications, prohibited practices, and penalties for violations.

[SS Fed] Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act

20 Minutes

Privacy rights are a significant concern for mortgage professionals who are involved in the processing, closing, and servicing of mortgage loans. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLB Act) protects the privacy of nonpublic personal information that is provided by individual consumers and customers. It is vital for mortgage professionals to understand this Act in order to properly protect an individual's privacy during the loan process.

This course provides an overview of the GLB Act, including important definitions, required disclosures, and prohibited practices.

[SS Fed] Home Mortgage Disclosure Act

15 Minutes

Congress enacted the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) in 1975 to discourage creditors from denying loans to qualified applicants because of the applicants' race, a practice also known as "redlining," and to encourage lending institutions to provide loans to the consumers in their communities. HMDA requires covered lending institutions to submit reports about their mortgage lending activities in order to help citizens and public officials determine whether institutions are serving the housing needs of the communities in which they are located and to assist public officials to determine how to best use public sector investments in order to encourage private sector investment.

This course provides an overview of HMDA, including important definitions, data collection and reporting requirements, and penalties for violations of HMDA.

[SS Fed] Homeowners Protection Act

20 Minutes

Private mortgage insurance (PMI) protects the lender in the event that a borrower defaults on a loan, and it is required when a borrower makes a down payment of less than 20% and the loan-to-value ratio is high. Congress passed the Homeowners Protection Act (HPA) in 1998 to facilitate the cancellation of private mortgage insurance. The Homeowners Protection Act provides for the automatic termination of PMI as borrowers build equity, and the risk of loss from default decreases.

This course provides an overview of the HPA, including important definitions, required disclosures, and prohibited practices under the law.

[SS Fed] Identifying High-Cost Mortgages and Higher-Priced Mortgage Loans

10 Minutes

In 1994, Congress adopted the Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act (HOEPA) in response to the growing use of abusive mortgage lending terms and practices in the subprime market. In 2008, the Federal Reserve Board attempted to make protections available to more borrowers in the subprime market by writing a new set of regulations that apply to "higher-priced mortgage loans."

This course provides an overview of the loans covered by HOEPA, as well as those considered higher-priced under the law.

[SS Fed] Mortgage Acts and Practices Rule

15 Minutes

Ensuring that advertisements to consumers are clear, accurate, and understandable is an important part of compliance enforcement for regulatory agencies overseeing the mortgage industry. While many advertising provisions are already in place under the federal Truth-in-Lending Act, another rule, called the Mortgage Acts and Practices Rule (the MAP Rule), further regulates the advertisement of mortgage products. It is essential for mortgage professionals to be aware of all areas of federal and state law that regulate advertising practices, and to comply with those regulations at all times.

This course provides an overview of the MAP Rule, including its background, scope, and applicability, as well as prohibitions under the Rule.

[SS Fed] Privacy Rules

10 Minutes

The Do-Not-Call Implementation Act was signed into law in 2003 as part of earlier legislation - the Telemarketing Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention Act and the Telemarketing Sales Rule. The Do-Not-Call Implementation Act authorized the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) to implement and enforce the Do-Not-Call Registry. Under the original provisions of the Telemarketing Act, consumers were required to renew their entry in the registry every five years. Following amendments made by the Do-Not-Call Improvement Act of 2007, phone numbers added to the registry become permanent.

This course provides an overview of the Do-Not-Call provisions, as well as prohibitions of the Telemarketing Sales Rule.

[SS Fed] Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act - Part I

30 Minutes

The Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) was enacted in 1974 to provide protection for consumers throughout the loan origination process and during and after closing. RESPA assists consumers in selecting appropriate settlement services, and eliminates fraudulent costs associated with settlement services, such as kickbacks and referral fees. RESPA deals with loans secured by mortgages on one- to four-family residential properties, including most purchase loans, assumptions, refinances, property improvement loans, and equity lines of credit.

This course provides an overview of RESPA, including an explanation of transactions subject to and exempt from the law, important definitions, and information related to required disclosures.

[SS Fed] Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act - Part II

20 Minutes

The Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) was enacted in 1974 to provide protection for consumers throughout the loan origination process and during and after closing. RESPA assists consumers in selecting appropriate settlement services, and eliminates fraudulent costs associated with settlement services, such as kickbacks and referral fees. RESPA deals with loans secured by mortgages on one- to four-family residential properties, including most purchase loans, assumptions, refinances, property improvement loans, and equity lines of credit.

This course provides an overview of RESPA, including prohibited lending practices, mortgage servicing rules, and penalties for RESPA violations.

[SS Fed] Regulatory Authority

20 Minutes

The enactment of the Dodd-Frank Act brought about many changes that greatly altered the face of the mortgage industry. One of the most significant of these changes was the creation of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), which became the primary entity in charge of implementing and enforcing most of the provisions of federal lending and consumer protection laws, many of which were previously overseen by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

This course provides a review of the authority of the CFPB, as well as the functions and remaining authority of HUD.

[SS Fed] The Loan Originator Compensation Rule

10 Minutes

The Loan Originator (LO) Compensation Rule became effective in 2014, and is intended to discourage harmful practices, such as basing compensation on the terms of a loan, dual compensation, and steering.

This course provides an overview of the Loan Originator Compensation Rule, including permissible and prohibited forms of compensation for mortgage licensees.

[SS Fed] The S.A.F.E. Act

10 Minutes

In 2008, and in response to the mortgage lending crisis, the federal government sought to ensure minimum licensing standards for all mortgage loan originators with the enactment of the Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008 (S.A.F.E. Act).

The S.A.F.E. Act attempts to make licensing requirements for state-regulated mortgage professionals more uniform by requiring every state to meet minimum standards for all loan originators.

This course provides an overview of the S.A.F.E. Act, including specific requirements related to licensure and registration.

[SS Fed]

The TILA-RESPA Integrated Disclosure (TRID) Rule - Part I

30 Minutes

The Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA) and the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) require numerous disclosures to ensure consumer protection in mortgage loan transactions.

On October 3, 2015, the Loan Estimate and the Closing Disclosure replaced previously-used disclosure forms for most mortgage loan transactions. These disclosures resulted from several years of testing, public comment, and legislative revision, and are intended to provide consumers with more clear, accurate, and easy-to-understand disclosure of transaction-related information.

This course will review introductory information about the TILA-RESPA Integrated Disclosure (TRID) Rule, and includes a step-by-step review of the Loan Estimate, including completion requirements, details related to timing and accuracy, and examples of each page of the disclosure.

[SS Fed]

The TILA-RESPA Integrated Disclosure (TRID) Rule - Part II

20 Minutes

The Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA) and the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) require numerous disclosures to ensure consumer protection in mortgage loan transactions. On October 3, 2015, the Loan Estimate and the Closing Disclosure replaced previously-used disclosure forms for most mortgage loan transactions. These disclosures resulted from several years of testing, public comment, and legislative revision, and are intended to provide consumers with more clear, accurate, and easy-to-understand disclosure of transaction-related information.

This course will explore a step-by-step review of the Closing Disclosure, including completion requirements, details related to timing and accuracy, and examples of each page of the disclosure.

[SS Fed] Truth-in-Lending Act - Part I

20 Minutes

Congress enacted the Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA) as Title I of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (CCPA). TILA is a law that is intended to protect consumers in the financial marketplace by providing them with disclosures that will help them to understand the financial products that they are purchasing. The stated purpose of the law is to encourage the "informed use of credit" by assuring that consumers are able to compare more readily the various credit terms available to them.

This course provides an overview of TILA, including an explanation of which types of loans are covered under the law, important definitions, and provisions of TILA related to the finance charge and annual percentage rate.

[SS Fed] Truth-in-Lending Act - Part II

20 Minutes

Congress enacted the Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA) as Title I of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (CCPA). TILA is a law that is intended to protect consumers in the financial marketplace by providing them with disclosures that will help them to understand the financial products that they are purchasing. The stated purpose of the law is to encourage the "informed use of credit" by assuring that consumers are able to compare more readily the various credit terms available to them.

This course provides an overview of disclosures required by TILA, specifically those required for closed-end adjustable-rate mortgage transactions and transactions for home equity plans.

[SS Fed] Truth-in-Lending Act - Part III

30 Minutes

Congress enacted the Truth-in-Lending Act (TILA) as Title I of the Consumer Credit Protection Act (CCPA). TILA is a law that is intended to protect consumers in the financial marketplace by providing them with disclosures that will help them to understand the financial products that they are purchasing. The stated purpose of the law is to encourage the "informed use of credit" by assuring that consumers are able to compare more readily the various credit terms available to them.

This course provides a review of TILA's provisions related to rescission and advertising, as well as penalties for violations of the law.

[SS Fed] USA PATRIOT Act and Bank Secrecy Act

20 Minutes

The USA PATRIOT Act (the PATRIOT Act) was enacted in response to the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. The portions of the PATRIOT Act that impact mortgage lending transactions are contained in Title III, which is called the International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act of 2001. The PATRIOT Act strengthens the U.S. government's ability to take action to address money laundering.

This course provides an overview of the PATRIOT Act, including which entities are required to comply with the law and the specific requirements for such entities.

[SS Gen] Conventional Mortgages

20 Minutes

There are various mortgage programs currently available in the industry. Generally, mortgages may be categorized as conventional or non-conventional. Conventional mortgages may be either conforming, meaning they meet loan limits and other standards to qualify for purchase by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac, or they may be non-conforming, meaning they do not meet such standards.

This course provides an overview of conventional mortgages.

[SS Gen] Guidances

15 Minutes

The Interagency Guidance on Nontraditional Mortgage Product Risks and the Statement on Subprime Mortgage Lending were developed by the federal banking regulatory agencies in response to the decline of the mortgage market. While these guidances did not have the effect of law, they were vital to re-establishing common-sense lending practices. The standards outlined in the guidances have now been codified in new and revised mortgage laws and regulations aimed at ensuring responsible lending practices.

This course provides an overview of the guidances, including the reasoning behind their issuance and the recommendations contained within each. This course will also discuss the current and future relevance of the guidances.

[SS Gen] High-Cost Mortgage Loans

20 Minutes

High-cost mortgage loans are a category of loans identified and protected under the federal Home Ownership and Equity Protection Act (HOEPA). This course will review the features of high-cost mortgage loans, including how they are identified, special disclosure requirements, prohibited practices, and more.

[SS Gen] Higher-Priced Mortgage Loans

20 Minutes

Higher-priced mortgage loans are a category of loans identified according to standards set forth under the federal Higher-Priced Mortgage Loan Rule (HPML Rule). The Rule imposes requirements and prohibitions for these mortgage loans.

This course will review thresholds for identifying HPMLs, requirements for origination, appraisal standards, prohibitions, and more.

[SS Gen] Mortgage Loan Products

20 Minutes

A fixed-rate mortgage is one in which the interest rate is set from the time the loan is closed and does not change during the life of the loan. Fixed-rate mortgages are the most common loan product in today's marketplace, specifically the 30-year fixed-rate mortgage; in fact, any loan other than a 30-year fixed-rate is considered nontraditional under federal mortgage lending standards. An adjustable-rate mortgage (ARM) is one in which the interest rate may change one or more times during the life of the loan. Consequently, payment amounts may change.

This course provides an overview of fixed- and adjustable-rate mortgages, including payment strategies, rate increase calculations, available products, and more.

[SS Gen] Mortgage Loan Terms

20 Minutes

This course provides an overview of industry terms which are important to understand in conducting mortgage-related business. Ranging from loan features to disclosures and other financial terms, the definitions included in this course may prove invaluable information for any person hoping to better understanding the workings of the mortgage industry.

[SS Gen] Non-Conforming Mortgages

20 Minutes

There are various mortgage programs currently available in the industry. Generally, mortgages may be categorized as conventional or non-conventional. Non-conventional mortgages are insured or guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA), the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), or the Rural Housing Service (RHS) of the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA), while conventional mortgages are not.

This course provides an overview of non-conforming loans, including FHA loans.

[SS Gen] Other Loan Products I

15 Minutes

While today's market is largely populated by "traditional" loan products and qualified mortgages, loan originators are permitted to make other types of loans that fit the needs of borrowers who need less conventional loan features. While not as popular, these loan products have their advantages - particularly to consumers who have a short or troubled credit history, irregular or seasonal income, or otherwise do not fit the mold of the everyday loan applicant. These loans still have their place in today's market, and an awareness of such products and their features is valuable information for a mortgage professional.

This course provides an overview of second mortgages, home equity lines of credit, and balloon mortgages, among others.

[SS Gen] Other Loan Products II

15 Minutes

While today's market is largely populated by "traditional" loan products and qualified mortgages, loan originators are permitted to make other types of loans that fit the needs of borrowers who need less-conventional loan features. While not as popular, these loan products have their advantages - particularly to consumers who have a short or troubled credit history, irregular or seasonal income, or otherwise do not fit the mold of the everyday loan applicant. These loans still have their place in today's market, and an awareness of such products and their features is valuable information for a mortgage professional.

This course provides an overview of construction loans, bridge loans, interest-only loans, and more.

[SS Gen] Qualified and Non-Qualified Mortgage Programs

20 Minutes

The Ability to Repay/Qualified Mortgage Rule provides that when creditors make "qualified mortgages," they may presume that the loans have met the requirements for establishing the borrower's repayment ability. Since the law creates a "safe harbor" from liability for loan originators who make loans that meet the characteristics of a qualified mortgage, there is incentive for loan originators to make such loans. Even so, loan originators are permitted to make other types of loans that may not necessarily meet the requirements of a qualified mortgage.

This course provides an overview of qualified mortgages and their applicable rules and regulations. In addition, features and regulations pertinent to non-qualified mortgages will be discussed.

[SS Gen] Reverse Mortgages

20 Minutes

Reverse mortgage loans are available only to people who meet a certain age threshold and other requirements. They are popular among consumers who have built equity in their homes and are looking to finance living expenses or home improvement projects.

This course will review reverse mortgage loans, including the types of products available, standards for borrower eligibility, and program options.

[SS Gen] VA and USDA Loans

20 Minutes

VA loans are a type of non-conventional loan available to veterans in the United States. The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (the VA) does not make these loans - it establishes standards for eligibility and guarantees the loans made. The USDA makes mortgage loans more accessible for consumers in rural and agricultural areas of the country.

This course will review concepts about VA and USDA lending, including current requirements, eligibility standards, and more.

[SS LO] Ability to Repay and Qualified Mortgages

10 Minutes

The Ability to Repay Rule and the Qualified Mortgage Rule have greatly altered the standards by which many mortgage loan transactions are conducted. The primary goal of these rules is to enhance and ensure consumer protection in the mortgage industry by establishing guidelines for what constitutes a safe mortgage loan transaction. It is important for mortgage professionals to be familiar with these standards, to ensure compliance with the law and the continuation of a sound, safe mortgage market.

This course will review the Ability to Repay Rule and the Qualified Mortgage Rule and their influence on mortgage loan transactions. In addition, the concept and importance of tangible net benefit will be discussed.

[SS LO] Adjustable-Rate Mortgage Loans

15 Minutes

Adjustable-rate mortgages are a nontraditional mortgage product available for qualified borrowers. These loans come in several forms, and allow certain homeowners to take advantage of interest rate changes to save money. Adjustable-rate mortgages may also be qualified mortgages.

This course will review adjustable-rate mortgages types, common features, and information about the index and margin, as well as details of how the Qualified Mortgage Rule applies to calculating monthly payments.

[SS LO] Analyzing Borrower Qualifications

20 Minutes

The process of ensuring an applicant is qualified for a loan begins with analyzing the borrower's assets and liabilities, income, credit, and other characteristics related to his or her financial condition. Various calculations may need to be performed, specifically those related to the potential borrower's income, which will vary depending upon whether the applicant is self-employed or a salaried, hourly, or commissioned employee.

This course provides an overview of the analysis performed in order to determine whether a loan applicant is fit for a loan, which includes a review of income, assets, and liabilities. This course will also review income calculations, including examples.

[SS LO] Appraisals

20 Minutes

Because the collateral for a mortgage loan is the subject property, the appraised value of the property is an important consideration in loan approval. The lender must have a high level of confidence in the documentation presented by the appraiser. It is essential for appraisals to be accurate, and overvaluation is a significant problem in the industry.

This course provides an overview of the appraisal process, including a look at the Uniform Residential Appraisal Report and the various approaches used by appraisers in evaluating property. In addition, this course briefly explores additional appraisal requirements for higher-priced mortgage loans.

[SS LO] Borrower Credit Qualifications

15 Minutes

The process of ensuring an applicant is qualified for a loan begins with analyzing the borrower's assets and liabilities, income, credit, and other characteristics related to his/her financial condition. Essential to assessing a loan applicant's suitability for a loan is an examination of his/her credit report.

This course provides an overview of how borrower credit is analyzed, including detailed information relating to the credit report.

[SS LO] Completing the Loan Application

30 Minutes

The Uniform Residential Loan Application (Form 1003) is the standard form used by loan applicants applying for a mortgage. Applicants must present documentation to show the veracity of the information provided in the application. Both loan applicants and those assisting applicants in completion of the 1003, such as mortgage lenders, brokers, and loan originators, have legal and ethical responsibilities. The 1003 is a fairly extensive document and is used to compile a broad range of personal information, so understanding each section of the form is vital.

This course provides an overview of each section of the Uniform Residential Loan Application, including graphics to enhance understanding. This course will also discuss the documentation required to support information disclosed on the application.

[SS LO] Disclosures

20 Minutes

Providing disclosures to consumers is essential in ensuring they stay informed throughout the loan process. Some disclosures are intended to educate consumers, particularly when risky lending terms are involved, while others are meant to inform consumers about specific information regarding the loan they have already obtained or the loan they are about to obtain. Regardless of their intention, disclosures are closely regulated by state and federal law, and those mortgage professionals that do not adhere to disclosure requirements are likely to face enforcement action.

This course provides an overview of disclosures required throughout the loan process, including those disclosures intended to inform consumers about certain information related to their loan, as well as disclosures intended to inform consumers of certain rights.

[SS LO] Funding and Servicing

10 Minutes

Generally, funding occurs after the recordation of documents with purchase transactions and refinances involving investment properties. Funding practices vary from state to state. After closing and funding, a mortgage loan goes into servicing. The servicer may be either the lender that made the loan or a third party; often, servicing rights may be transferred to another entity at some point during the life of the loan.

This course reviews basics of the funding and servicing processes.

[SS LO] Mortgage Calculations

20 Minutes

There are many calculations that go into a successful mortgage transaction. These include calculating interest rates, income, payment amounts, rate caps, insurance premiums, and more. Many of these can be completed using a calculator, but a professional who takes the time to learn how each formula works will have a stronger grasp and be better equipped to answer borrower questions.

[SS LO] Mortgage, Hazard, and Flood Insurance

15 Minutes

There are many different types of insurance which may be required in conjunction with the origination of a mortgage loan. Hazard, flood, and mortgage insurance are three common types.

This course will review these types of insurance, when they would be required for a loan, and more.

[SS LO] Qualifying Ratios

15 Minutes

The process of ensuring an applicant is qualified for a loan begins with analyzing the borrower's assets and liabilities, income, credit, and other characteristics related to his or her financial condition. Once the initial information is obtained, the lender will use various formulas to determine the amount for which the borrower will qualify. Such formulas will ensure that the borrower is matched with an appropriate product for his/her financial condition so that the loan is likely to be repaid in accordance with the terms of the lending agreement.

This course provides an overview of qualifying ratios, including the front end ratio, the back end ratio, the loan-to-value ratio, the combined loan-to-value ratio, and the high loan-to-value ratio. Students will have an opportunity to review an example of each calculation presented.

[SS LO] The Closing Process

20 Minutes

Once all loan and title conditions have been satisfied, closing may be scheduled. It is vital that all of the parties to the transaction know the time, date, and location of the loan closing. The first step in the post-closing process is funding, and once the file is returned to the lender by the closing agent, loan servicing begins.

This course provides an overview of the closing and post-closing processes, including information related to title and title insurance, the duties of the closing agent, funding, and servicing.

[SS LO] The Title Process

15 Minutes

Title insurance is defined as an "agreement to indemnify against loss arising from a defect in title to real property, usually issued to the buyer of the property by the title company that conducted the title search." Lenders require title insurance in order to protect themselves from risks that arise when securing a loan with a property.

This course provides an overview of title insurance and information related to liens.

[SS LO] Underwriting Review

20 Minutes

An underwriter's principal responsibility is to ensure that the proposed loan meets the requirements set forth by the investor who will purchase the mortgage. This includes assessing a borrower's ability and willingness to repay the mortgage debt and examining the property being offered as security for the mortgage.

This course will review the basics of underwriting, from evaluation of borrower qualifications to analysis of the subject property and more.

[SS LO] Verification and Documentation

15 Minutes

After completing a loan application, the consumer must provide documentation to support the information disclosed. This documentation is used to determine and verify the consumer's ability to afford the mortgage loan obligation they will be offered. The federal Ability to Repay Rule provides underwriting factors that must be considered when making these determinations.

This course will explore the types of verification and documentation needed to support a borrower's ability to repay.

Leadership in Management

Recommended for:

- All employees

Raise the bar in your organization with courses that create exceptional leaders.

Leadership in Management courses teach employees how to improve performance in their current positions, and prepares them for roles that entail more responsibility down the road.

Ten modules comprise the curriculum which addresses business letters, conflict resolution, memo and email writing, time management, and interview preparation and conduct.

LE1 - Introduction to Management Basics

60 Minutes

Making the jump from front-line employee to manager can be difficult, surprising, frustrating - and even stressful. Gain a better understanding of your role as a manager, what your staff expects of you, and how to manage teams and individuals.

LE2 - Time Management

60 Minutes

After transitioning into managerial roles, many new managers often discover the need to develop better time management skills. Learn tools and techniques you can use to improve the way you use your time.

LE3 - Business Writing

60 MIN

A well-written communication has the power to persuade, instruct and inform. Choose words and create sentences that convey your message clearly, and feel more confident in the quality of the letters, memos and e-mails you write for customers, coworkers and management.

LE4 - How to Lead and Participate Effectively in Meetings

60 Minutes

If you feel meetings are more akin to tasks on to-do lists than vehicles for reaching strategic objectives, think again. Reframe your outlook on meetings, and transform static, creativity-zapping sessions into inspiring and productive organizational destinations.

LE5 - Coaching and Feedback

60 Minutes

One of your goals as a manager is to see your direct reports succeed at work. Good coaching skills will help you achieve this goal. Watch various situations unfold and learn how to provide appropriate, effective feedback that will help your employees grow.

LE6 - Leading People Through Change

60 Minutes

Change is never easy. Yet, to be a successful leader, you need to be agile and adaptable in order to navigate your team through times of transition. Increase your capacity to change, and learn how to lead others during transformation.

LE7 - Handling Conflict

60 Minutes

Conflict can have both positive and negative effects on a team or organization. Learn to leverage conflict to solve problems and achieve positive results in your workplace.

LE8 - Sharpening Your Interviewing Skills

60 Minutes

Hiring the right talent is one of the most critical things you can do to help your company reach its goals. Find out how to screen candidates, prepare for an interview and ask good questions.

Note: This course provides information of a general nature regarding interviewing practices. It is not intended as legal advice for interviewing and should not be viewed as a substitute for legal consultation regarding general hiring practices or specific individual situations.

LE9 - Managing Multiple Generations at Work

30 Minutes

Today's workforce is comprised of four generations of employees - Seniors, Baby Boomers, Generation X-ers and Millennials. Gain a better understanding of the differences and similarities across each demographic, and learn how to bridge generational diversity in your organization.

LE10 - Introduction to Project Management Concepts

60 Minutes

Transform conceptual thinking into measurable and accountable processes that meet your company's requirements. Find out how to achieve objectives within a set period of time by becoming familiar with planning, scheduling and task orchestrating activities.

Member Services

Delivering great value to members is about more than just ensuring their satisfaction with your organization's products and services. Member Services courses teach employees how to provide stellar service that will set your institution apart from the competition.

Recommended for:

- All employees

Member Service

60 Minutes

An important part of every credit union's success is its commitment to member service, as excellent member service can truly differentiate a credit union from its competitors. This course explains why it is important to practice good member (customer) service skills and introduces five tenets of delivering excellent member service.

REAL Customer Service 1 - Showing Customers You Care

60 Minutes

Providing a prompt service solution is only one part of the customer-service equation. Research has shown that customers want a quick solution, but they also want to be treated in a caring manner while their issues are being addressed. Strengthen your relationships with customers by learning how to communicate genuine concern during every interaction.

REAL Customer Service 2 - Using Language to Serve the Customer

60 Minutes

Language is powerful - particularly when helping customers meet requests and resolve issues. Sharpen your verbal skills and leave customers with a more favorable impression of you and the organization you represent.

REAL Customer Service 3 - Opening the Conversation

60 Minutes

You only have one chance to make a good first impression. Increase customer satisfaction by learning how to establish instant rapport on the phone. Discover how to pave the way for customer conversations by delivering a professional opening in an upbeat, happy-to-help tone.

REAL Customer Service 4 - Diagnosing Customer Needs

60 Minutes

Ask questions. Listen. Confirm your understanding. Get savvy about these essential skills, and discover how they can help you better meet customers' needs and ensure their satisfaction.

REAL Customer Service 5 - Responding to Customer Requests

60 Minutes

Answering customer inquiries quickly and correctly shows customers that you and your company are ready, willing and able to satisfy their concerns. Find out how to handle customers' requests you can't fulfill in a way that demonstrates value.

REAL Customer Service 6 - Taming Challenging Conversations

60 Minutes

Keeping your cool in challenging conversations with customers is an art. Attain the skills you need to tame tough conversations when dealing with angry callers, mounting time pressures and highly repetitive tasks.

REAL Customer Service 7 - That's a Wrap - Closing the Conversation

60 Minutes

By the close of a customer call, you have likely taken the appropriate steps to solve the customer's problem or address his or her request. You're not done yet, though! Learn how to handle the rest of the conversation in a way that can help prevent misunderstandings, reduce callbacks and increase customer satisfaction.

Teller Member Service Standards

60 Minutes

The purpose of this course is to teach tellers the standards for quality member service. Standards for face to face interaction and phone standards are covered.

Sales Experience

Sales are the core of every business, and the barometer through which growth is measured. Sales experience courses teach your sales team how to deepen customer relationships using a variety of proven techniques. From ways they can increase the value of transactions through cross-selling, to the art of anticipating and overcoming prospective customers' objectives, this effective curriculum links theory with practice to accelerate success.

Cross-Selling for Credit Unions

60 Minutes

To be competitive in today's financial services marketplace, institutions must offer their members a wide range of financial products and services. Completing this course will introduce a variety of these products and services, in addition to reviewing basic cross-selling and communication skills which aid in building long-term relationships with your members.

REAL Sales 1 - The Other Side of Service

60 Minutes

In your role as a sales person, you must also uncover customers' unspoken needs and match them with the appropriate products and services that will address them. When you've finished the three lessons in this module, you'll have an opportunity to complete a self-assessment to review what you've learned and test your knowledge.

REAL Sales 2 - Adding Value Through Cross-Selling

60 Minutes

Making sure customers' unrecognized needs are addressed before the contact is concluded is yet one more way you can provide total service. Learn to anticipate customers' requirements at every interaction, and discover ways you can develop deeper customer relationships. Includes three lessons and a self-assessment.

REAL Sales 3 - Adding Value Through Up-Selling

60 Minutes

Like cross-selling, up-selling is another facet of offering total service to customers. Help customers streamline productivity, while also increasing the size or value of the sale through up-selling. Each lesson of this module includes a self assessment so you'll have an opportunity to test your knowledge and apply what you've learned.

REAL Sales 4 - Overcoming Resistance

60 Minutes

When it comes to cross-selling, the best defense is a strong offense. Two of the keys to serving customers completely? Knowing how to anticipate their objections and being prepared to overcome them. Complete five short lessons in this module, then apply what you've learned to your own job when you've finished the lessons in a self-assessment.

2 Minutes

Becoming more productive is a skill that is often talked about, but rarely implemented. There is no magic wand that makes you a more productive person. You have to want it, earn it, and then enjoy it. The skills you have learned in this series will grant you your wishes, but only with intent and discipline. Take back your time, after all, it was yours, to begin with!

Impactful Communication

Recommended for:

- All employees

The Impactful Communication series provides your employees with communication skills necessary to interact with internal and external clients, both written and verbally. The courses in this series are focused micro-courses covering key learning skills every employee needs to know, including communication rules, effective listening, handling conflict and more.

Impactful Communication - Series Introduction

2 Minutes

Impactful Communication involves many active skills, such as speaking, writing, reading, and listening. When utilized properly, Impactful Communication results in a strong culture, strengthened relationships, and a well-balanced work environment.

Impactful Communication - Setting Proper Expectations

9 Minutes

Most think performance and retention of employees come from leadership post training. The reality is that majority of the time, expectations are not set clear enough in the interview process. It is important to set expectations for the role, leadership, and future growth early and set a clear understanding about what will be tolerated.

Impactful Communication - Communication Rules

8 Minutes

Learn how to set communication rules that will help you save time with those in your organization or department. You have a destination, by ensuring that is clear and making rules as a team on how all communication channels should be treated, you gain speed as you work towards the destination.

Impactful Communication - Keys to Successful Emails

8 Minutes

You will walk through how to write strong emails, when to write these emails and learn the key formats that are conducive to communicating your message.

Impactful Communication - Graduated Learning

7 Minutes

Graduated learning is the art of providing only a little information at a time so that the person can digest the development and learning slowly. Often, people want to reach the end result overnight. However, providing too much too quickly can overwhelm some people. By slowly working towards it and giving them only what they need to know when developing them can help ensure they get there faster.

Impactful Communication - Effective Listening

10 Minutes

What does it mean to actually listen? This skill can be so easy to understand but so difficult to actually implement. It is not only about how the individual makes sure they are listening and seeking to understand but more importantly to ensure the other person knows that they are being listened to. Take it a step further and acknowledge that many are terrible at this skill so it can be hard to be a great listener when the person on the other side can't reciprocate. This leads to misunderstandings, conflicts, etc. Focus on how to help people through the skill of effective listening on this module.

Impactful Communication - Assertive Behavior

7 Minutes

So often people struggle to be assertive. Most come from preference of passive or aggressive. What is the difference? What is the tact or way to approach people where it comes off as assertive? Why is it vital to be assertive in business if it be sales, leadership or other roles? This is one of the most under utilized skills in business.

Impactful Communication - Healthy Conflict

Becoming a better communicator helps you in multiple areas of your life. Your job, your friends, your spouse, your kids, your parents, or even when dealing with customer service. It is the communication that is driving the results you're looking for.

Dynamic Leadership

The Dynamic Leadership series is designed to help your employees gain the necessary skills to become effective leaders. The courses in this series are focused micro-courses covering key learning skills, including identifying key leadership qualities, how to communicate vision and employee development planning.

Recommended for:

- All employees

Dynamic Leadership - Introduction

2 Minutes

Dynamic Leadership is about working to build a performance culture. Having this type of culture keeps attrition low and performance high. This skill focuses on sharing the vision, aligning on goals, developing trust, and advancing the individuals personally and professionally that you are responsible for. When done right, the ROI and retention of your team are top notch.

Dynamic Leadership - Key Leadership Qualities

10 Minutes

This is an introductory course. It's going to focus on the initial skills that make up strong qualities of a leader. So when you process through this, share what skills with brief descriptions help get people to leadership. Talk about general best practices when being a leader. This is a general session so don't feel the need to go too deep - focus more on the different elements.

Dynamic Leadership - Developing Trust

13 Minutes

How do you build trust with a team or employee? What are the key concepts to ensure you are earning and retaining their trust? Trust is a fundamental part of employee retention, but more important is being able to get strong performance out of the employee or team.

Dynamic Leadership - Creating Buy In

10 Minutes

This skill focuses on obtaining support and agreement from employees for a specific end goal, so that they want to achieve that goal themselves. Learn to how to get buy-in from employees to ensure they move the ball forward.

Dynamic Leadership - Communicating Why

10 Minutes

Why do you follow a leader? What gets you excited to work towards a common goal? A leader lacking vision that is clearly communicated can be the demise of a business. How do you ensure this doesn't happen? What are the best ways to communicate the vision and how do you ensure it's aligned on and that your team is bought in. Doesn't matter if it is a business of 2 or 2000 employees, this is such a crucial skill.

Dynamic Leadership - Key Training Principles

11 Minutes

To train someone effectively, don't focus on what is being trained; focus on how to approach a training plan, how to facilitate a training, how to identify the key learning styles and how you ensure the training works.

Dynamic Leadership - Effective Meetings

9 Minutes

What makes a meeting great? This skill helps to identify when a meeting is needed and the components that make it successful (i.e., structure, participants, content).

Dynamic Leadership - Coaching to Peak Performance

9 Minutes

Coaching is one of the four styles of leadership. It's most well known for helping develop the skills, mindset, or confidence needed to increase both skill and commitment to a task or goal. This skill focuses on the process used to coach someone as well as the tact needed to truly make a shift in skill or paradigm for the individual being coached.

Dynamic Leadership - Employee Development Planning

12 Minutes

It is important that each employee continues to receive development on their core skills. This skill is about laying out a clear development plan; including how to set it up and structure it to ensure the employee gets the proper amount of development.

Dynamic Leadership - Accountability Meetings

10 Minutes

Year-end reviews do not need to be a painful experience. This skill is about completing a performance review with an employee or even a client. Whether it be 60 days, 1 year or 10 years, it is all about creating a frequency that makes sense. The focus of this skill should be how you encourage people to look forward to performance reviews, gain value from them and be a strong piece of the excellent culture provided within the organization.

Dynamic Leadership - Series Summary

2 Minutes

Becoming a great leader requires dedication to the craft. You may have natural charisma or be sociable enough to get by in the early stages of your leadership. But you have to be ready to make the right decisions for the organization and sometimes that does not make you popular with your team. How you handle that says more about your leadership skills than anything else.

Prescriptive Selling

Recommended for:

- All employees

The Prescriptive Selling series provides your sales team with the skills necessary to sell more effectively, using proven sales process techniques. The courses in this series are focused micro-courses covering key learning skills every sales employee needs to know, including uncovering the client's need, selling the benefit, next step selling and more.

Prescriptive Selling - Introduction

2 Minutes

Prescriptive Selling is all about setting yourself up for success during your sales process. Being able to plan accordingly, share the proper amount of information at the right time, and adjust on the fly given the situation are all components that lead to you becoming a better salesperson and lead to a signature on the dotted line.

Prescriptive Selling - Goal and Metric Planning

7 Minutes

This skill teaches clients how to set goals, how to measure success effectively, and how to build a detailed sales plan. An effective sales plan connects long-term goals to short-term goals.

Prescriptive Selling - Probing for Needs

9 Minutes

This skill focuses on uncovering what is most important to your client, so you can sell to their specific needs. This skill includes asking the right questions, specifically when and how to ask detailed questions.

Prescriptive Selling - Matching Benefits

11 Minutes

This skill focuses on matching specific benefits to the needs you found during probing portion of the sales process. Everyone wants to sell features; you need to sell perceived or received BENEFIT.

Prescriptive Selling - Building Urgency

10 Minutes

Make a consumer feel the need to make a decision sooner than they would have without your help. This skill is not about making a sale right now; it is about speeding up the decision timeline relative to where your client stands.

Prescriptive Selling - Situational Selling

10 Minutes

This skill teaches you to tailor every individual sale and to sell in the same style as the person you're selling to. No two sales should sound the same; if you're the kind of person who uses memorized lines to win sales, you're probably not winning often.

Prescriptive Selling - Next Step Selling

11 Minutes

This skill focuses on identifying the steps of a sales process and how to sell to the appropriate next step.

Prescriptive Selling - Trial Closing

8 Minutes

This skill uses specific, purposeful questions to help you identify if someone is ready to close. Trial closing puts a consumer in a buying mindset and helps them work through a decision in live time. It also gives a sales rep confidence and guidance to close at the right time.

Prescriptive Selling - Objection Handling

9 Minutes

This skill focuses on how to understand and respond to client objections to help you move closer to a sale.

Prescriptive Selling - Upselling

9 Minutes

This skill focuses on making and securing additional sales. It teaches clients how to lock in the next sale and how to create additional value to lock in future sales.

Prescriptive Selling - Series Summary

3 Minutes

Becoming a strong salesperson is not impossible, but it is also not going to be an easy journey. Each moment in sales requires experience, commitment, discipline, and intention. Some people sign a deal at 8:00am and go golfing the rest of the day, some people knock on doors until 5:00pm until they land a deal. Find out where you need to improve and put the time in.

The Board through management is ultimately responsible for the Bank Secrecy Act at your financial institution. This will help Board members understand some of the big picture in regards to BSA.

The Risks of Combining ERM and Audit Committees

18 Minutes

This program will address the roles of the ERM and Audit committees and also the risks of combining them.

UDAAP

19 Minutes

Understanding what products, offerings and communications are "fair" is something that can keep us up at night. Perhaps this is for good reason, as there are high costs to deceiving or treating a customer unfairly. During this program we will review the four Ps of deception and the newer terminology of "abusive". You can comply with the regulations and still have things that are unfair. With this in mind, we will review the history of UDAAP along with good examples of the violation of things that are fair. Lastly, we will talk about some products and services that receive greater scrutiny.

Understanding Loan Pricing: More Than Just Matching the Competition

25 Minutes

Today's pricing environment is very volatile, after the Federal Reserve had been raising rates over the last two years, then with rates heading down in mid-2019. This creates several immediate issues in terms of dealing with customers, including attempts by competing lenders to take some of your best borrowers with unusual or very low interest rate quotes with extended fixed-rate periods. Too often, your lenders and management explain the competing offer as just "desperation" or crazy. By not knowing how the competitor derived the offer, your bank ends up just meeting the competition.

Vendor Management

18 Minutes

This program will discuss the topic of Vendor Management, including the risks associated with outsourcing as well as the life cycle of the relationship.

Foreign Branch Office (FBO)

This course explains the money laundering process and educates you about ways to prevent money laundering at your financial institution. It also discusses key legislation and your financial institution's requirements for its anti-money laundering (AML) strategy.

FBO - Bank Bribery Act

30 Minutes

This course covers prohibitions against bank bribery. It discusses what type of items/gifts a financial institution's employee is forbidden to accept and lists a variety of exceptions. The course also contains a scenario with Anne Marie, a bank employee, and Mario, her customer. As you move through the scenario, you will be asked to determine if Mario is trying to bribe Anne Marie, and how Anne Marie's responsibilities and compliance requirements will determine how she is required to respond.

FBO - Bank Secrecy Act for Foreign Branch Offices

60 Minutes

The Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) helps the United States government combat money laundering and other illegal financial activity. All banks operating in the United States or U.S. Territories must adhere to these BSA rules and regulations. This course provides an overview of the BSA and discusses its identification, recordkeeping, and reporting requirements.

FBO - Customer Due Diligence and Enhanced Due Diligence (CDD/EDD)

30 Minutes

Customer due diligence (CDD) is a critical part of your branch's/agency's Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) and anti-money laundering (AML) policies. This course discusses the purpose of CDD guidelines and the basic way CDD can help you to know your customer, assess risk, and decide when enhanced due diligence (EDD) may be necessary. Employees must know how and when to apply appropriate CDD and EDD procedures. This course explains the basics of CDD and EDD and provides opportunities to practice what you have learned in two scenario activities.

FBO - Embassy and Foreign Consulate Accounts

30 Minutes

This course explains why an embassy and foreign consulate may need an account in the United States. The course discusses the risks associated with an embassy or foreign consulate account and what a U.S.-based branch of a foreign bank can do to mitigate those risks.

FBO - Expedited Funds Availability Act - Regulation CC

60 Minutes

This course provides an overview of the Expedited Funds Availability Act (EFAA) implemented by Regulation CC. The course begins by introducing Regulation CC basics, and then covers the availability of funds. It also discusses Regulation CC exceptions.

FBO - Foreign Correspondent Bank Accounts

20 Minutes

This course explains why foreign correspondent accounts pose money laundering risks to your branch/agency. The course also discusses the BSA and USA PATRIOT Act requirements that you must follow for foreign correspondent banking transactions. At the end of the course, you will be asked to apply what you have learned in a case study scenario.

FBO - Member Identification Program (MIP)

90 Minutes

This course reviews the basic requirements of a Member Identification Program (MIP) as prescribed by the PATRIOT Act. It explains the relationship between the MIP and the institution's anti-money laundering (AML) program. In addition, it provides guidance on how to verify the identity of customers and how to respond to identify verification problems.

FBO - Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC)

60 Minutes

All U.S. individuals and businesses are required to comply with regulations sanctioned by the Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). Among other things, these regulations block or restrict financial institutions from transactions with foreign persons, countries, or entities that are known or suspected to have ties to terrorist activity or drug trafficking. This course provides a working knowledge of the OFAC regulations, including what the OFAC regulations entail, what to do if someone is found to be prohibited from engaging in transactions with the U.S., and what it takes to be compliant under these regulations.

FBO - Trade Finance Fraud

30 Minutes

Trade finance fraud and money laundering, also referred to as trade-based money laundering (TBML), can be performed during the shipment, documentation, or purchasing of goods and services. This is a growing threat primarily in the international economy. All financial institution employees must be aware of the red flags that indicate fraud and TBML and procedures they can use to help fight this type of crime.

FBO - Wire Transfers

45 Minutes

A branch/agency may have to process the sending and receiving of wire transfers. Since wire transfers can be associated with money laundering, you must be able to identify red flags that may indicate criminal activity in an account. This course discusses risk factors associated with wire transfer activity and ways you can help prevent your branch/agency from falling prey to any illegal wire transfer activity.

Phishing

12 Minutes

Because today's computers and networks are heavily defended from a direct assault, hackers are now much more likely to target end-users when trying to break in. If hackers can trick you into divulging your username and password or inadvertently infecting your computer with malicious software, they can use your computer as a launching point to further penetrate your organization's network. This HTML5-based, iPad-compatible course uses high-quality video and real-world simulations to teach best practices for recognizing and preventing both phishing and spear-phishing attacks.

Security Awareness Essentials

30 Minutes

This course covers a high level overview of the major standards and topics of the NIST. Employees will master the fundamentals of information security including key threats and how to counter them. By mastering the information presented in this course, employees will be able to defend workplace data from malicious threats and become certified in basic security awareness. This security awareness training course covers key security best practices end users should follow so they can prevent, detect, and respond to information security threats.

Key Topics: Introduction, password management, identity theft, malware, social engineering, phishing, physical security, travel safety, mobile data, ransomware expansion, spear phishing expansion, and privacy and acceptable use updated statistics.

Cybersecurity Advanced

Our Cybersecurity Advanced series delivers the ability to target with role based courses, comply with special standards requirements, and to shift culture with a more advanced reinforcement strategy. For organizations who are ready to transform the workforce into a security-minded culture.

A Day in the Life Theme: Security Awareness

70 Minutes

This course covers every topic required by major standards and regulations and is designed to change user behavior by diving deeply into each topic. Employees will master the fundamentals of information security including key principles, concepts, vulnerabilities, threats and how to counter them. By mastering the information presented in this course, employees will be able to defend personal and workplace data from malicious threats.

In this highly interactive course, learners will explore key information security concepts, examine threats and how to counter them and review safe computing habits that can be applied at home and in the workplace. By following the best practice lessons covered in this course, participants will be better able to recognize cyber threats and know how to defend against them.

Key Topics: Introduction, password management, viruses and malware, mobile data, physical security, social engineering, phishers, encryption, acceptable use policies incident response, backups, security services, risk management, network eavesdropping, protecting your home computer and identity theft.

A Day in the Life Theme

(with Adaptive TestOut/Analytics)

Individual

Learners take a test before the course starts, then based on those results, the course adapts so they are only presented with the course topics they don't know.

Appropriate Use of Social Media

14 Minutes

Social media can be an excellent tool to connect and interact with customers, show thought leadership, and build a brand, but it also poses unique security, HR, and public relations challenges. This course covers social media best practices including secure use, accountability, harassment, how to spot scams, secure passwords, and advanced security features. This HTML5-based, iPad-compatible course uses high-quality video and real-world simulations to teach best practices for social media.

Baseline Information Security Training for IT Professionals

60 Minutes

This course is designed to provide fundamental information security knowledge that every employee in the IT Department must have in any organization. This course is easily customized to fit your particular policies, procedures, best practices and guidelines.

Cloud Security

9 Minutes

Cloud-based services offer incredible convenience and can help people be more productive, especially while on the go. But they also create new security challenges, because the security of any information stored on the cloud is only as good as the security of the service provider who holds it. This HTML5-based, iPad-compatible course uses high-quality video and real-world simulations to teach best practices for cloud security.

Data and Records Retention

35 Minutes

Data in electronic and hard copy format within organizations is growing at a rate of about 125% per year and yet only 20% of that data is actually used to conduct business. Managing all of that data can become an administrative nightmare for you and the organization as a whole. This is especially true when litigation is pending and we must sift through all of our records to find certain pieces of data. This course will help you understand how to comply with the many laws, regulations, policies, and best practices that govern how long certain kinds of data should be kept and how and when to dispose of that data properly.

Defeating Social Engineers (Advanced)

17 Minutes

With increasingly sophisticated technical defenses for networks and computer systems, hackers often decide that it is much easier to simply go around these perimeter defenses by attacking the end user. After all, end users have what they want - a computer that's behind the network firewall, a network username and password, and possibly access to trade secrets, confidential information, and bank accounts. This course will teach end users how to identify and avoid giving away sensitive information to these hackers.

Defeating Social Engineers (Standard)

10 Minutes

With increasingly sophisticated technical defenses for networks and computer systems, hackers often decide that it is much easier to simply go around these perimeter defenses by attacking the end user. After all, end users have what they want - a computer that's behind the network firewall, a network username and password, and possibly access to trade secrets, confidential information, and bank accounts. This course will teach end users how to identify and avoid giving away sensitive information to these hackers.

Email Security and Instant Messaging Security

11 Minutes

Email and instant messaging (IM) are essential communication tools that most people use just about every day. They're incredibly useful applications because they allow you to quickly and efficiently exchange messages and files with just about anyone else in the world. However, it's a two-way street, meaning that since you can connect with anyone online, anyone else, including hackers and cybercriminals, can connect with you. This course teaches employees email and IM best practices.

GDPR: GDPR for Data Handlers

8 Minutes

The European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) took effect on May 25, 2018, ushering in sweeping changes to requirements for any organization that collects, maintains, or processes the personal data of individuals residing in the EU. Compliance with the GDPR will affect all our organization's data handling activities, either directly or indirectly, and all staff whose responsibilities include use of PII will be expected to operate in accordance with the regulation's safeguards. This course will provide employees a general awareness of the GDPR's requirements and how they affect our day-to-day data processing activities, as well as helping them to recognize potential problems should they arise.

GDPR: How to Comply With the GDPR in the US

10 Minutes

The General Data Protection Regulation, or GDPR, contains principles for protecting the privacy of EU citizens' personal data. When it took effect in 2018, every organization, worldwide, that gathers, stores, or processes this data in any way, must comply with the strong data protections required under the GDPR. Upon completion of this module, learners will be able to recognize situations where the GDPR comes into play and what to do when they encounter data that falls under GDPR regulations in the US.

GDPR: Introduction and Overview

20 Minutes

This comprehensive course is delivered in a series of short, concise modules targeted to specific areas of the law and targeted to defined roles contained within the GDPR. Participants will learn the fundamentals of the new regulations and the key concepts behind them. By the end of this course series, learners will be able to recognize situations where the GDPR comes into play and what to do when they do encounter data that falls under GDPR regulations.

*Note: This course covers information for those who reside in an EU member country.

GDPR: Navigating the GDPR with our US Partners

8 Minutes

The European Union's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) took effect on May 25, 2018, ushering in sweeping changes to requirements for any EU organization that collects, maintains, or processes the personal data of EU citizens, and exchanges of that data with organizations outside the EU will be significantly impacted. Since data transfers with the US represent a major share of these cross-border activities, this course will focus on a comparison of the differences between EU and US privacy laws, as well as exploring avenues by which EU-US information exchanges can be conducted.

GDPR: Transfers of Data Outside of the EU

8 Minutes

This course is one of a multi-part series that covers the fundamentals of the EU's General Data Protection Regulation, or GDPR, as well as its origins and key concepts. The GDPR contains principles for protecting the privacy of EU citizens' personal data. When it took effect in 2018, every organization, worldwide, that gathers, stores, or processes this data in any way, must comply with the strong data protections required under the GDPR. In this module, you learn how the GDPR affects our organization when transferring or receiving EU citizens' private information outside the borders of the UK and EU.

Human Firewall Theme: Security Awareness and Literacy

90 Minutes

This course covers every topic required by major standards and regulations, and is designed to change user behavior by diving deeply into each topic. Employees will learn the fundamentals of information security including key principles, concepts, vulnerabilities, threats and how to counter them. By mastering the information presented in this course they will be able to defend your personal and workplace data from malicious threats and become certified in information security awareness and literacy.

Key Topics: Introduction, password management, viruses and malware, mobile data, physical security, social engineering, phishers, encryption, acceptable use policies incident response, privacy and legal issues, security services, backups, risk management, network eavesdropping, protecting your home computer and identity theft.

Incident Reporting

7 Minutes

Reporting incidents of suspicious activity and the loss of assets or sensitive information is extremely important. In this module, employees will learn about common physical and information security incidents that should be reported and how to report them.

Information Security for Executives

14 Minutes

With the goal of breaching your network, cybercriminals have stepped up their efforts to target C-level executives, upper management and those with privileged access to an organization's systems with a variety of focused attacks. They are out to steal money, personal /credit info of clients and customers as well as intellectual property and other assets from organizations across the globe. And if yours is targeted, there may be more at stake than just losing data. It may mean the CEO and other executives' jobs. This course focuses on what executives can do to help keep their organization safe and their business-reputation intact in the face of today's cybercriminals. Participants will explore key concepts of executive-level information security concerns and what you can do to bolster your organization's overall security posture.

Key Topics: Whaling, Business Email Compromise (BEC), Travel Security (Dark Hotel, Evil Twin, etc.), Protecting an Organization, Security Awareness Programs, Support Staff and Threat Landscape.

"Internet of Things" (IoT) and Home Security

10 Minutes

Almost anything can be made into a "smart" device, such as security cameras and sensors, TVs, garage door openers, door locks, wearable devices, pacemakers, and even cars. These devices are what we refer to as the "Internet of Things" (IoT), which holds the promise of adding a whole new level of convenience and connectedness to everyday life. Having that many new, connected computing devices, most of which record activity, presents new challenges for security and privacy. This course teaches employees the best practices for IoT devices both at home and at work.

Introduction to the OWASP Top 10

15 Minutes

The Open Web Application Security Project (OWASP is a global community focused on improving the security of web application software. The OWASP Top Ten list is highly respected and has been adopted by, among other organizations, the Payment Card Industry (PCI) Security Standards Council. This short lesson reviews the top ten list to ensure all web application developers in your organization are exposed to it.

Password Management

15 Minutes

Passwords are the keys to our digital lives and protect us from hackers and cybercriminals, but how exactly could a hacker crack your password and what can you do to protect it? This HTML5-based, iPad-compatible password management course uses high-quality video and real-world simulations to show the tactics hackers use to compromise accounts and the password security best practices that can help prevent that from happening.

PCI Essentials for Cardholder Data Handlers and Supervisors

25 Minutes

This course teaches employees and supervisors what PCI DSS is, how it affects your organization and the best practices they should follow to protect cardholder data and detect and prevent fraud. This course is meant for employees and supervisors in companies that require PCI DSS – 3.2 compliance.

PCI Requirements Overview for I.T. Professionals

40 Minutes

This course teaches I.T. professionals what PCI DSS is, how it affects your organization, how to comply with the 12 requirements and the best practices that front line staff should follow to protect cardholder data and detect and prevent fraud. This course is meant for IT Professionals in companies that require PCI DSS - 3.2 compliance.

Phishing

12 Minutes

Because today's computers and networks are heavily defended from a direct assault, hackers are now much more likely target end-users when trying to break in. If hackers can trick you into divulging your username and password or inadvertently infecting your computer with malicious software, they can use your computer as a launching point to further penetrate your organization's network. This HTML5-based, iPad-compatible course uses high-quality video and real-world simulations to teach best practices for recognizing and preventing both phishing and spear-phishing attacks.

Physical Security

10 Minutes

Your personal safety at work is of paramount importance. This course is designed to teach employees how to protect an organization from criminals, espionage, workplace violence, natural disasters, and other threats. This HTML5-based, iPad-compatible course uses high-quality video and real-world simulations to teach physical security best practices.

Privacy and Data Protection

30 Minutes

This course will help employees understand what information is private, why it is private, and what they can do to protect it throughout the data lifecycle, which is the life of a piece of information, whether in paper or digital format, from creation to destruction within an organization.

Privileged User Security

20 Minutes

Hackers and cybercriminals specifically target privileged users. After all, they have access to an organization's most prized data. This course will teach privileged users the security best practices they're expected to follow in order to defend against hackers.

Protecting Mobile Data and Devices

8 Minutes

Because today's smartphones and tablets can not only act as a phone, but also as an email client, mobile Internet device, camera, GPS navigation system, entertainment console, and platform for any number of applications (apps), they can be exposed to many of the same risks as a desktop computer. This HTML5-based, iPad-compatible course uses high-quality video and real-world simulations to teach best practices for mobile security.

Security Awareness Essentials

30 Minutes

This course covers a high level overview of the major standards and topics of the NIST. Employees will master the fundamentals of information security including key threats and how to counter them. By mastering the information presented in this course, employees will be able to defend workplace data from malicious threats and become certified in basic security awareness. This security awareness training course covers key security best practices end users should follow so they can prevent, detect, and respond to information security threats.

Key Topics: Introduction, password management, identity theft, malware, social engineering, phishing, physical security, travel safety, mobile data, privacy and acceptable use updated statistics, ransomware expansion, spear phishing expansion.

Security Awareness for Managers

30 Minutes

This course is designed to educate managers to lead by example and encourage their teams to conduct everyday business in a responsible and secure way that reduces organizational risk, increases productivity and complies with policies, laws and regulations. Because they are the voice of your organization to their direct reports, your managers are in a unique position to influence the success or failure of your security awareness program, and their behavior and buy-in is a critical component of ensuring your cultural transformation to a security conscious organization.

Key Topics: Introduction, leading by example, security management practices and legal issues.

Security Awareness for the Home

7 Minutes

Threats to our home network can quickly turn into threats to our workplace infrastructure and visa-versa. To combat against threats on all fronts, we must learn to practice safe computing habits both in the home and in the workplace. In this course, participants will be introduced to some key principles of safe system administration that they can use in the home that mirror techniques used in the workplace. By mastering the techniques found in this course, participants will learn to develop a regime of security-conscience behavior that will help keep important data safe from hackers, data thugs and cybercriminals.

- All Employees

HIPAA/HITECH Privacy for Business Associates

60 MIN

The final Omnibus rules for the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), as amended by the HITECH Act places greater responsibility on all Business Associates to safeguard Protected Health Information. Business Associates and their subcontractors will, for the first time, have some absolute obligations for how they can use and disclose protected health information that they handle on behalf of the covered entity. This privacy course is specifically tailored to help employees of business associates understand what information is private, why it is private and what they can do to protect it.

HIPAA/HITECH Privacy for Covered Entities

60 MIN

The final Omnibus rule greatly enhances a patient's privacy protections, provides individuals new rights to their health information, and significantly strengthens the government's ability to enforce the law. Training employees to safeguard Protected Health Information (PHI) is a requirement of all "covered entities" based on the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, as amended by the HITECH Act. This privacy course is specifically tailored to help healthcare employees understand what information is private, why it is private and what they can do to protect it.

HIPAA/HITECH Information Security

45 MIN

This course covers information security topics related to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) security rule. The HIPAA Security Rule requires covered entities to maintain reasonable and appropriate administrative, technical, and physical safeguards for protecting Electronic Protected Health Information (e-PHI).

Key topics: HIPAA compliance, information security basics, password management, online security threats and how to counter them, malware, insider threats, information classifications, proper information disposal, clear desk policy, social engineering, phishing, online scams, acceptable use policies and ethics and incident response.

Data and Records Retention

35 Minutes

Data in electronic and hard copy format within organizations is growing at a rate of about 125% per year and yet only 20% of that data is actually used to conduct business. Managing all of that data can become an administrative nightmare for you and the organization as a whole. This is especially true when litigation is pending and we must sift through all of our records to find certain pieces of data. This course will help you understand how to comply with the many laws, regulations, policies, and best practices that govern how long certain kinds of data should be kept and how and when to dispose of that data properly.

Commercial Lending Program

(in partnership with Eensight)

This unique, cost-effective series gives employees the tools they need to verify key information, understand consumer regulations, underwrite the loan, and follow up to minimize fraud.

Our web-based learning management system brings together best practices in applied learning, course management, scheduling and reporting. Advanced data integration functionality works seamlessly behind the scenes with your existing enterprise technology.

Recommended for:

- Assistant Branch Managers

- Underwriting Staff

Accounting

1.5 - 2 Hours

The participant will be introduced to the theory of financial accounting and the application of debits and credits and will be able to apply the accounting concepts to various situations.

Cash Flow Analysis

2 - 3 Hours

This course introduces the cash flow analysis necessary to analyze if a company has the capacity to service interest and principal payments, as well as to cover its capital expenditures. It explains the underlying causes of changes in cash flow within a company and interprets the meaning of some of the most widely used cash flow coverage ratios (Debt Service and Fixed Charge Coverage ratios).

Cash Flow Construction

2 - 3 Hours

This foundational course introduces the cash flow construction skills to understand how a business generates and uses cash.

The construction of the three different cash flow presentations: FASB 95, Uniform Credit Analysis (UCA), and the EBITDA approach are explained and a practical case is used to construct a UCA cash flow statement from a company's financial information.

Cash Flow Forecasting

2 - 3 Hours

The purpose of the course is to move forecasting from a number massaging exercise into the creation of a "Most Likely Case" scenario within a range of probable performance scenarios. The course builds the skills necessary to identify and assess the sources of repayment, identifies key credit risks and mitigating factors, and creates sensitivity forecasts that incorporate risk analysis.

Credit Skills Diagnostic Assessment

1 Hour

How do you measure the skill sets of your lending professionals and set them on a path toward improvement? Deploy the Credit Skills Assessment tool to objectively measure the level of lending competency across your organization to establish and maintain consistent performance.

Credit Write-Up

2 - 3 Hours

Your ability to communicate a cohesive argument regarding the acceptability of a credit transaction is as important as the quality of the credit analysis itself. A credit write-up is key for analyzing, understanding and communicating the credit worthiness of a business. The course develops a framework to elaborate a complete credit analysis to support the underwriting of a loan request by communicating a cohesive argument regarding the acceptability of a credit transaction in spite of the identified risks.

Financial Statement Analysis

2 - 3 Hours

The ability to get behind the numbers when completing a financial statement analysis is critical to understanding the capacity of a borrower to repay. This course analyzes the income statement and balance sheet, focusing on trend and ratio analysis to evaluate performance. The conclusions provide a deeper understanding of the capacity to generate profits combined with an understanding of the overall financial position of the borrower.

Guarantor Analysis

2 - 3 Hours

This course focuses on the analysis of a guarantor's financial strength by assessing the capacity and willingness to make interest and principal payments. From the information provided in the tax return, you will calculate the guarantor's combined business and personal cash flow to evaluate the sufficiency to support interest payments. From the Personal Financial Statement, you will calculate the Guarantor's Net Worth and Liquidity.

Loan Documentation

2 - 3 Hours

As a lender, you must craft secure documents that protect your financial institution, even in the event of non-payment. You will define the Legally Responsible Entities (such as Individuals and Sole Proprietors, Corporations, LLC and LLP, Partnerships and Trusts), identify the documents that establish the existence of an entity, provide authority to act and establish the obligation to pay. The course develops a framework that safeguards your financial institution and explains the risks of inadequate documentation.

Loan Structuring

2 - 3 Hours

The primary tenant of this course is the protection of the primary and secondary sources of repayment. An appropriate loan structure goes well beyond the loan type (Seasonal, Permanent Working Capital, Term and Bridge loans); it involves the integration of loan type, amortization schedules, covenants and collateral/guarantees which together create a "structure" that matches the appropriate loan type to the borrower's needs, protects the primary source of repayment and ensures value in the secondary sources when necessary.

Sources of Repayment

2 - 3 Hours

This course focuses on the determination and evaluation of the strength of acceptable Primary Sources of Repayment (PSR) (such as Net Cash Flow after Operations, Seasonal Conversion of A/R and Inventory, among others) by considering "scale" and "predictability." It identifies and prioritizes the Secondary Sources of Repayment (SSR) by considering scale, predictability, liquidity and interdependence of the PSR.

Consumer Lending Program

Following up on the Loan

1 - 1.5 Hours

As a lender, it is essential to protect your institution interest especially in the event of non-payment. You must learn to deal with different types of delinquents and to understand the legal options available, including Chapter 7 and 13 bankruptcies.

Government Regulations and the Lending Process

3 - 4 Hours

This course highlights the consumer regulations that affect every step of the consumer lending process from initial inquires, to making the loan decision and communicating the decision to the applicant. You will learn the reason behind the regulations and how regulations protect the borrower and the applicant.

Introduction to Consumer Credit

1.5 - 2 Hours

The primary purpose of this course is to give participants an overview of consumer lending and the competitive marketplace. They will learn the basic characteristics of the consumer lending products offered by financial institutions, why financial institution offer consumer lending products and how they make profits from consumer loans.

Investigating the Applicant – Part 1

1.5 - 2 Hours

The purpose of the course is to investigate the applicant's stability of employment and residence and willingness to repay the loan. Key elements in this process are to determine sources of income that are acceptable to repay a loan especially from both salaried and self-employed applicants. The willingness to repay the loan can be ascertained by analyzing a credit bureau report and their FICO credit score.

Investigating the Applicant – Part 2

2 - 3 Hours

This course focuses on the financial strength of the borrower. From the tax returns and personal financial statement you will learn to calculate the applicant's debt to income ratio and determine if it is sufficient to repay a loan. Understanding appraisals is also a key element when evaluating mortgage and home equity lending requests to determine if there is a sufficient secondary source or repayment.

Making the Decision

2 - 3 Hours

The primary focus of this course is to use all the information gathered from the application, credit bureau report, personal financial statement and tax returns and actually make a loan decision. There are three possible decisions, yes, no or potentially making a counteroffer. It is essential to create a loan structure that matches the loan structure to the borrower's needs. Secondary sources of repayment include collateral and understanding the procedures for accepting collateral and making sure the correct insurance is in place to reduce risk.

Preventing Fraud

30 - 45 Minutes

In this course you learn the ways applicant's can commit fraud and learn to take the necessary steps to prevent fraud from happening in the first place.
